

KCYLNA SUMMIT 2005
“A Symbol of Tradition and Unity”

Cold weather, snow, and winter fun, the destination: CHICAGO. KCYLNA has taken a new turn, from the normal summer convention to a winter gathering. This year we have planned something new and a little different from the past conventions. We have decided it is time to add a new aspect for our youth, so the Youth Leadership Camp is going to be combined with our social gathering. Our goal: to provide for our youth something spiritual, educational, and most of all FUN.

So you are probably wondering when this big event is supposed to happen. The scheduled dates are from Tuesday December 27- Friday December 30 at Resurrection Center, a retreat center 40 miles outside of Chicago. After spending time with the family for Christmas, Knanaya youth members can come together and enjoy the company of their second family. After a couple of days of new experiences, insights, and memories everyone begin the New Year off with a feeling of a strengthened Knanaya bond as well as more prepared and ready for the future.

Enclosed in the packet, we have included the registration form for the December Gathering. The cost per person will be $250 dollars; this includes room and board as well as food for your 4-day, 3-night stay. The maximum capacity is 150 members; the number of participants for each unit is limited so registration will be on a first-come first-serve basis. Registration will occur through each local unit; therefore you must be a member of your unit to participate. Transportation from the airport to the Chicago KCS Community Center will be provided for those flying into Chicago on Tuesday morning. It is however, recommended that all attendees arrive in Chicago by Monday because of the weather uncertainty. In order for KCYLNA/KCYL Chicago to arrange transportation to and from the airport you must arrive at O'Hare International Airport by 11:00 a.m. on December 27th. Everyone will meet at the community center Tuesday morning, and we will depart at 1:00 PM sharp as a group to the retreat center via bus. Upon arriving at the retreat center, you will check-in and be given your room key. We are hoping to arrive back at the Community Center on Friday December 30, 2005 by 4:00 p.m. so we ask that you book your flights home accordingly.

Though we want everyone to have a great time, rules and regulations will be enforced. The consumption/possession of cigarettes, alcohol, or drugs will not be tolerated. Violation of any of the rules will result in immediate removal from the convention. Adult chaperones will be at the retreat site during the entire event.

So parents, please send your youth to the new and definitely exceptional event. Updated information will be posted on the KCYLNA website, www.kcylna.org, and parents and youth are encouraged to check for new postings. If you have any questions or comments, you are more than welcome to contact any of the Executive Committee members. Our names and phone numbers are also posted on the website. Please do keep in mind that the last day for registration will be November 1st, 2005. Please make checks payable to KCYLNA.

SEE YOU IN CHICAGO!

Rules and Regulations

The following Convention rules and regulations are to ensure proper behavior, and the safety and security of every person attending convention. In order to make the 2005 Summit both enjoyable and successful, all participants are required to abide by the following rules and regulations:

1. Only individuals who are registered for Convention will be allowed to attend the Convention. Once registered, all registrants are required to attend all four days of Convention activities.
2. Everyone must arrive at the Chicago Community Center Tuesday, December 27, 2005 between 9:00 and 11:00am.
3. Check-in will be closed Tuesday at 11:00am, and only members who have checked-in will be allowed to participate in the convention unless of some specific reason.
4. When you arrive at the community center, there will be a bag check before you get onto the bus.
5. Room assignments will be made at the discretion of KCYLNA and its organizers.
6. Pillows, linens, and other necessities will be provided by the Resurrection Center. However, a hand towel or face cloth is recommended. Also people should bring jackets and gloves.
7. Each dorm will be supervised by one or more Chaperones, a member of the First Aid Committee, and Campus Security.
8. Campus Security will be handled by professional security personnel provided by the Resurrection Center.
9. Strict compliance of the schedule is expected of all participants.
10. Access to the dorms is denied outside bedtime and other assigned times set forth by KCYLNA and its organizers.
11. Everyone is expected to wear the ID Badge and wristband, provided at registration, at all times, so Security Personnel can identify Convention participants.
12. No one will be allowed to leave the campus during Convention, except for medical reasons, emergencies, or with the approval of the KCYLNA and its organizers.
13. All decisions on Campus rules, regulations, safety, and security taken by Campus Security will be final and irreversible.
14. Under probable cause, Security Personnel, Adult Chaperones, KCYLNA and its organizers will conduct room and bag inspections.
15. Vandalism, acts of physical violence, the consumption/possession of cigarettes, alcohol, or drugs will be considered SERIOUS RULE VIOLATIONS.
16. Participants who commit a serious rule violation will be removed from Convention and released into the custody of the adult listed on the Medical Emergency Form. If no adult is listed, the parents will be immediately contacted and the youth will be supervised by an adult chaperone until the parents can make other arrangements. The registration will not be refunded.
17. If any damages occur to either the Resurrection Center or someone else, the parents of the responsible participant will be required to pay the full cost of the damage.
